

Don't GO THROUGH ANOTHER SEASON without Your Westinghouse
Dual-automatic REFRIGERATOR

Every day you do without your Westinghouse Refrigerator is costing you dearly in convenience, protection and actual cash. Westinghouse offers you prices and special terms make this the time to buy. You can now own a Westinghouse Dual-automatic, trouble-free refrigerator in your home for just

A Small Cash Payment

Balance on Easy Terms

Heintzman & Co.
JASPER AVE.

SEED GROWERS GIVEN HONOR

R. B. Kirkham, of Saltcoats, Sask., and W. D. Lang, of Cawston, B.C., were elected Canadian Growers' Association members at the annual meeting of the Alberta branch.

Mr. Kirkham was honored for his excellent work in growing research work on wheat.

Mr. Lang's work in purification of Manitoba wheat over a period of years was also honored.

At a later date, in their home communities, they will be presented with bronze medallions in recognition of their services to the association.

Hon. Frank G. Miller, minister of agriculture for Alberta, a short address, expressed appreciation by his department of the work of the two men.

Mr. Kirkham, in his speech, said that they were honored that they were forced to do.

CABINET RECEIVES STRIKERS

MARCHER ENVOYS DEMANDS TO BE PRESENTED TODAY

STRIKERS ARE BITTER WITH THEIR DEMAND

Continued from Page One

from Slave Camp 202 or what you like."

The other delegates were P. Neil

S. Niven, of Vancouver, and John W. Savage and John

John W. Savage and

"Let us not sleep as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober." —L. Thees, S.S.

Today's text selected by Rev. C. A. Gutensolin, Strathcona Moraian Church, Edmonton.

Edmonton Bulletin

EDMONTON'S OWN NEWSPAPER

Founded in 1880 by Rev. Frank Oliver

The Bulletin is the only Edmonton Newspaper Owned, Controlled and Operated by Local Men

Published every afternoon except Sunday, by the Alberta News Press Limited, at the Bullitt Building, 1008 100th Street, Jasper Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada

CHARLES E. CAMPBELL, Owner and Publisher.

Subscription Price: By mail (in advance) per year, in Canada, $5.00. United States, $7.00. By Carrier, $4.00. 15 cents for 75¢ per year. Telephone 2812.

Advertising Representatives:

TORONTO—Albert E. Ford, 74 King Street, Phone Elgin 2-2111.

MONTREAL—G. L. C. J. Crowley, 221 St. James Street W., Phone Harbour 7820.

UNITED STATES—Lorenzen & Thompson Inc., 233 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago 1, Illinois; 4405 46th Street, New York 318; Keith Edge, Cincinnati; General Motors Building, Detroit, 130; San Francisco; Los Angeles; New York; Boston; New York; Los Angeles; Dwight Building, 1004 Baltimore Street, Kansas City; Star Building, Saint Louis; Washington; Lewis Tower Building, Philadelphia; 711 St. Helens' Avenue, Tacoma, Washington.

LONDON—England: The Clougher Corporation, 1000 10th Avenue, London.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations audits the circulation books of The Edmonton Bulletin.

IF IT WILL HELP ALBERTA THE EDMONTON BULLETIN IS FOR IT

FRIDAY, JUNE 21

A SPENT FORCE?

Canadian exports to Great Britain went down $66,000,000 during May compared with the figures of a year ago, exports to all British countries were down slightly, while exports to foreign countries were up nearly five million.

That will somewhat dampen the style of the propagandists who have been telling us that we are saving the public what immense benefit the Ottawa agreements have conferred on Canada's export trade. With exports to Empire countries static while exports to foreign countries expand, it begins to look as though the Ottawa agreements have been a success in longer diverting trade from foreign channels into Empire channels, which was all they ever did or could do.

STOP THE GLARE

Glaring headlights are claimed to have been a contributing cause to a fatal motor car accident near St. Albert, very recently. The car had been heading west on the Yellowhead Trail, when the headlights of an oncoming car were very bright.

The problem of providing lights which will enable a driver to see where he is going without blinding the driver of an approaching car, is one with which motor mechanics and legislators have been faced.

The mechanics have done their part better than the law makers and enforcers. Lights are available which do not "glare," but either the law against glaring lights is not strict enough or the mechanics have not done their part to see that it can be enforced with complete effectiveness.

Alberta is not peculiar in this respect. It is claimed that in Manitoba ninety-nine cars out of a hundred are fitted with lights which do not comply with the law.

It is to be supposed there will be a tightening up of regulations very soon in this province as a result of these fatalities.

St. Petersburg: The war party is fighting the peace movement.

F. A. Walker was nominated Liberal candidate.

The second trial of King for the murder of Haywood near Lesser Slave Lake, opened yesterday before Judge Scott.

The Edmonton board of trade will send an exhibit to the Canadian Fair, to be held at New Westminster in September.

Merriam stock is being sold extensively in western cities.

London: Swedish newspapers openly advocate war with Norway.

Application has been made to the militia department at Ottawa for guns with which to fittingly signalize the swearing in of the first lieutenant-governor of Alberta, at Edmonton.

TO LEAD—BUT WHO?

His supporters in parliament tendered the Prime Minister a complimentary banquet, whereupon he has been asked to say whether he intends to stay there on the job or out.

He obliged, by saying definitely that he intends to stay. From which the public will gather, with no less pleasure than that party supporters, that a wretched and vacuous notion of the memory one must carry all his days if through neglect he has caused injury or death to some person.

THE MAIL BAG

Three men were poisoned, one fatally, by eating poisoned candy, at St. Albert.

Mrs. J. A. McDougall has offered to supply an ambulance and equipment for Red Cross work, which has been accepted.

Ottawa: New Zealand has agreed to a million bushels of wheat from Canada.

Washington: Mr. Bryan, late secretary of state, is publishing his reasons for resigning and views the war, in a series of continued articles.

Ottawa: The commission to investigate war contracts in Canada is in session here.

London: Britain's air fleet now comprises 2500 aeroplanes and 30 dirigibles suitable for bombing purposes.

THE MAIL BAG

Publication of the Bulletin was suspended on June 20th, 1925, and resumed on Dec. 3rd, 1925. "Ten Years Ago" items will accordingly bring up to date the contents between the corresponding dates.

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

Passengers are now allowed to travel on freight trains in the C.P.R. main line and between the cities of Wilcox and Moose Jaw.

The average amount of the sum of each depositor in the post office savings bank at the end of the fiscal year was $215, the number of depositors 45,000.

The number of miners for British Columbia reached 844 with 789 Chinese and Japanese employed in the placer diggings of the province, and the total yield $393,842 of gold and $8,500 of silver.

That will somewhat dampen the style of the propagandists who have been telling us that we are saving the public what immense benefit the Ottawa agreements have conferred on Canada's export trade. With exports to Empire countries static while exports to foreign countries expand, it begins to look as though the Ottawa agreements have been a success in longer diverting trade from foreign channels into Empire channels, which was all they ever did or could do.

Major General Herbert will not resume his duties as commander in chief of the Canadian militia.

The recent census shows Medicine Hat to be the second largest town in Alberta.

Regina: The Edmonton, 1884; Edmonton, 500; Prince Albert, 1312; Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, 1000; Leithbridge, 1525; Cardston 134; Edmonton, 1000.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Berlin: German armament manufacturers are swamped with orders for the war.

They have orders for 300 guns monthly for two years.

St. Petersburg: The war party is fighting the peace movement.

F. A. Walker was nominated Liberal candidate.

The second trial of King for the murder of Haywood near Lesser Slave Lake, opened yesterday before Judge Scott.

The Edmonton board of trade will send an exhibit to the Canadian Fair, to be held at New Westminster in September.

Merriam stock is being sold extensively in western cities.

London: Swedish newspapers openly advocate war with Norway.

Application has been made to the militia department at Ottawa for guns with which to fittingly signalize the swearing in of the first lieutenant-governor of Alberta, at Edmonton.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Three men were poisoned, one fatally, by eating poisoned candy, at St. Albert.

Mrs. J. A. McDougall has offered to supply an ambulance and equipment for Red Cross work, which has been accepted.

Ottawa: New Zealand has agreed to a million bushels of wheat from Canada.

Washington: Mr. Bryan, late secretary of state, is publishing his reasons for resigning and views the war, in a series of continued articles.

Ottawa: The commission to investigate war contracts in Canada is in session here.

London: Britain's air fleet now comprises 2500 aeroplanes and 30 dirigibles suitable for bombing purposes.

THE MAIL BAG

Publication of the Bulletin was suspended on June 20th, 1925, and resumed on Dec. 3rd, 1925. "Ten Years Ago" items will accordingly bring up to date the contents between the corresponding dates.

Poems That Live

WHAT DO WE PLANT?

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

We plant the tree that will cross the sea.

We plant the plants to withstand the gales;

The keel, the keelson, the beam, the knee;

We plant the ship when we plant the tree.

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

We plant the houses for you and me.

We plant the rafters, the shingles, the floors;

We plant the beams, the posts, the rafters,

We plant the doors, the beams, the stairs;

We plant the house when we plant the tree.

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

We plant the spire that out-towers the crag.

We plant the staff for our country's flag.

We plant the shade, from the hot sun; free.

We plant all these when we plant the tree.

—Henry Abbey

If you set aside one-third of your income for taxes you will hit it right, according to the Citizens' Research Institute—until the Government decides to increase the personal and official-expenses the only thing remaining to be done is to assure France that Germany will not build beyond this limit if Russia places a fleet in the Baltic. That assumes given, all the cards will have been squared and the counter-weighted—soaked in paper, and Europe may look forward to enduring

SCALING UP, NOT DOWN

London is quite confident the danger of a navy-building race has been averted, by the agreement with Germany to build a navy of 25 per cent that of Great Britain. According to the official-experts the only thing remaining to be done is to assure France that Germany will not build beyond this limit if Russia places a fleet in the Baltic. That assumes given, all the cards will have been squared and the counter-weighted—soaked in paper, and Europe may look forward to enduring

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

This would be a good time for Mr. Lloyd George to reproduce again the undertakings which were given to Germany in 1918 that the British would not only not oppose the re-creation of a German fleet, but would give it a progressively increasing proportion with the minimum prescribed for their defeated enemy. Instead of cutting their armaments down to Germany's level, they are permitting Germany to build up to a point where it will be swelled to twice its size, a ratio apparently satisfactory to Mr. Hitler. That is not the understanding that was given to the world's taxpayers when the treaty of Versailles was framed.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

The Passing Show

By J. S. CONFER

This column has often remarked on the beginning of which history is being made these days. I've had a vivid illustration of it. Last week I was away campaigning up the Alberta Coal Branch where trains are few and slow and highways nonexistent. So far, however, I had not heard of any meeting which I heard on the radio at Stereo before "ushing off" to a meeting. I was out of touch with the progress of events. And what was the first thing I heard on the radio? What a quickening of spirit and what a succession of crises have arisen in a week.

First of all is the handing over of the Canadian government to the Ottawa authorities were calling beginning of the civil militia—known as the Mounties—Ottawa, and forming a Citizen's Guard. The Mounties were to be disbanded, and the men were asked for jobs and the Ottawa men were preparing to give them a show of force.

Forty-eight hours later, I find Premier

Bennett decided on a bit of Napoleonic strategy.

He would have the marchers in a liberal

and friendly attitude.

But the Mounties had

ing peace and great economy on the water front—perpetually.

The definite fact emerging from the conference is that Germany now has a fleet, which is already largely in existence. A limit has been set, and so long as it is not exceeded, no objection.

Beyond that fact lies the fog. How large a fleet Russia will put in the Baltic, if any, remains to be seen. And when that is seen, Germany will copy the example of its neighbors, by adding whatever number of warships it may think it needs, in violation of the contrary. Circumstances will, of course, set bounds to armaments in Europe.

HOW TO MAKE ICED TEA
Follow six heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh boiling water. Add 1/2 cup of granulated sugar and the juice of 2 lemons. Stir well until sugar is dissolved. Add to container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding the cold water, otherwise liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chipped ice.

"SALADA" ICED TEA

Hollywood Gossip

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF
ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS

HAVING worked for seven years as a studio manager, John Baker and Lou Holtz, Benny Baker has turned out to be the laziest man on earth—by his own admission.

"It requires no brain work to be a studio manager," says Baker. "As a matter of fact, the longer you exhibit the longer you work. When you have enough brains to think the comedian isn't funny, you lose your job. I had to learn to make a long speech about nothing. But what I have to do."

"This has made me very lazy, for which reason I have been people enjoy life at its fullest."

Now Benny has a job being a temporary manager for nothing. But what is the type being in "College Scandal?"

When she was in Salt Lake City a short time ago, Jean Parker remarked that she would like to see her first love again. She said that all she could remember was his first name—Billy. Since then she has seen him in "College Scandal," Billie, each claiming to be THE one and each asking for a picture autographed to "My Sweetie Sweetheart."

Anna Louis is sporting three fraternity pins these days. But she won't reveal the names of those whom she has won the three world pictures, though.

The Debunker

Most housewives make the mistake of supposing that a bottle of milk is only as rich as the cream which rises to the top. This is not true, however, that there is a vast difference in different milks regarding the taste and richness of the cream and rises to the surface. In some milks the cream is very thin and watery, getting himself into a smart bachelor's apartment to find that a strange beauty has strolled in. The man was so taken with himself at home. A few minutes after he comes a murmur has reached him that she is somehow involved. He keeps her prisoner for

When she slips out, and her escape coincides with three other mystery, getting himself into a smart bachelor's apartment to find that a strange beauty has strolled in. The man was so taken with himself at home. A few minutes after he comes a murmur has reached him that she is somehow involved. He keeps her prisoner for the night, at the wrong end of a loaded gun.

The other picture on the Empress feature program is "Rainbow Valley," with John Wayne.

AMUSEMENTS

EMPRESS

Murder for profit motivates the ladies in the exciting mystery, "Lady in the Lamp," which opened a three-day run with Gladys Roland in the feature role.

Producer Edward T. Lowe, in defense of the casting, maintains that the mystery is always fascinating than the commoner types.

Gilbert Roland plays the part of a smart bachelor's apartment to find that a strange beauty has strolled in. The man was so taken with himself at home. A few minutes after he comes a murmur has reached him that she is somehow involved. He keeps her prisoner for

When she slips out, and her escape coincides with three other mystery, getting himself into a smart bachelor's apartment to find that a strange beauty has strolled in. The man was so taken with himself at home. A few minutes after he comes a murmur has reached him that she is somehow involved. He keeps her prisoner for the night, at the wrong end of a loaded gun.

The other picture on the Empress feature program is "Rainbow Valley," with John Wayne.

Orpheum Circuit

Veteran Dies

MARY MCKEE, June 21—Head of the Orpheum Circuit for 22 years, died at his home here.

He had served six months for the break and entered in Calgary last year, his record revealed.

ACTIVITY

LOUGHEED, June 21—With a circus activity is evident in circus in this district. Stettler continued June 27. Speakers on the occasion will include Mrs. R. Price, provincial president of the U.P.W.A., E.

Browne, M.L.A., and A. L. Sa-ders, M.L.A.

EXTRA

EXTRA</

Advertise Here Today . . . Have a Desirable Tenant Tomorrow—2 Lines For 6 Days, 50c—Phone 26121

Announcements

3 Weddings

GLOSSOP—SYNICK

Mr. S. Glossop's church in the Highlands was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday when the Rev. Walter

Lambert officiated.

The bride, Mrs. Mabel

of Olga June Synick, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John

J. Synick of Dunnville, Ontario, and

Frances Joseph Gleeson,

Brentwood, Alberta.

Ambridge,

Derbyshire, England.

The bride, who was born in England,

and the groom,

B. C. Gleeson, was charming in her wedding attire.

Her veil of tulle

was decorated with orange blossoms.

She was attended by

Misses Mabel and

Pearl St. John.

Mr. H. A. Wallace was the best man, and

Misses M. S. Johnson,

Mrs. E. G. G. Gleeson,

and Misses Josephine

and Dorothy Gleeson

were maid of honor.

The bride's father,

Mr. J. Synick, and

the groom's father,

Mr. B. C. Gleeson,

and the bride's mother,

Mrs. Mabel Synick,

and the groom's mother,

Mrs. Frances Gleeson,

were present.

The wedding was followed by a reception

at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

on their honeymoon.

The bride and groom

will be in the city

